9. Declaration

Please read carefully before you sign.
If you do not tell the truth you can be fined and any authority you hold could be cancelled.

I declare that the information on this form is true and complete. I have listed all details of charges pending or convictions against me for any criminal or traffic offences.

I will comply with all Acts, the Regulation and prescribed Standards relevant to the driver authority and understand that failure to do so may result in my authority being varied, suspended or cancelled.

The Ministry of Transport collects this information for the purpose of determining that you are of good repute and in all other respects a fit and proper person to drive a public passenger vehicle and that you have sufficient responsibility and aptitude to drive such a vehicle in accordance with law and custom. Information is obtained from the NSW Police Service and Roads and Traffic Authority in relation to any offences committed and driving history. The information supplied may be disclosed to law enforcement, licensing and registration agencies in Australia in addition, if required the Ministry may provide personal information to the Australian Taxation Office and the Commonwealth Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs. It is an offence to willfully make any false statement or misrepresentation in this form punishable by a fine of up to $2,200. You should immediately inform the Ministry of any matter that requires correction.

You have a right to access or correct your 'personal information' in accordance with the provisions of the relevant privacy legislation.
