

New Sportsmans Creek Bridge

Project update - October 2017

The NSW Government is funding the $27 million bridge project in Lawrence to improve road safety and efficiency. The project will involve building a new 175 metre concrete bridge, as well as a new road connecting Grafton Street with the new bridge.

Contractors: Delaney Civil Pty Ltd

Start of construction: July 2016

Expected completion: Mid 2018

Project value and funding: $27 million

NSW Bridges for the Bush program

Bridges for the bush

Improving safety

- Asphalt the new bridge and approaches
- Install new street lighting to the southern side of the new bridge.

Road work

- Grafton Street will remain closed until landscaping and roadwork are completed
- Work will start in front of the Lawrence General Store to link the new road into the existing road
- Build the new connection to Weir and Ensbey roads
- Build new access road to the boat ramp in Flo Clark Park.

Landscaping

- Landscaping of the area will take place. An outline of how the project will be landscaped is provided over the page.

What has happened to date?

- Work is being finalised on the new intersection to Bridge Street from Grafton Street, to provide access to Bridge Street once the new bridge is open
- Work has progressed on improvements to Bridge and Richmond streets, with a new road now built and sealed. Line marking will be done once the new bridge is open to traffic
- The 30 bridge girders and 30 beams have been lifted into place to form the bridge structure
- Work is progressing well on building the deck for the new bridge.

What is happening in the next three months?

Building the new bridge

- Continue to pour concrete for the new bridge deck
- Install new permanent bridge barriers and pedestrian handrails
