

No right turn at the Redleaf Avenue onto Pacific Highway Northbound, Wahroonga from Sunday 5 December 2021

The NSW Government is funding improvements at intersections on the Pacific Highway at Redleaf Avenue, Coonanbarra Road and Fox Valley Road to ease congestion and improve traffic flow.

As part of works, we will be permanently banning the right turn from Redleaf Avenue onto Pacific Highway northbound, Wahroonga. This permanent change that eases congestion will be in effect from 5 December 2021, weather dependent.

Motorists are advised to use Coonanbarra Road to access the Pacific Highway northbound.

How will the work affect you?

This right turn ban is permanent and you will not be able to turn right from Redleaf Avenue onto Pacific Highway northbound. Motorists are advised to use Coonanbarra Road to access the Pacific Highway northbound.

Road users will notice new line markings, as well as temporary infrastructure such as traffic barriers and cones.

The existing right hand turn restrictions from Coonanbarra Road onto Pacific Highway northbound between 6.30AM – 9:30AM and 3.30PM – 6:30PM at Coonanbarra Road will remain unchanged.

Please allow for extra travel time, use alternative routes and keep to speed limit in local roads.
