

Introduction

The Transitional Assistance Payment Phase 2 (TAP-P2) scheme has opened for applications.

The NSW Government allocated up to $98 million in transitional assistance funds to assist the holders of eligible taxi-cab licences adjust to the point to point transport industry changes and to offset a reduction in income because of those changes. A payment of $20,000 for each licence held in the same name or names, up to a maximum of $40,000 for two licences held in the same name or names, was available for eligible licence holders. The Transitional Assistance Payment (TAP) scheme originally opened for applications from 14 July 2016 until 13 January 2017, with no further applications accepted after 13 April 2017.

The Taxi and Hire Vehicles Industries Assistance Panel (the Panel), established to oversee the distribution of the NSW Government's $250 million industry adjustment assistance package, recommended that certain categories of eligible taxi-cab licence holders who did not receive a TAP should be able to apply for an equivalent TAP.
