

Report 6 – September Surface Water Monitoring

This report has not been produced.

Surface water sampling was taken in September 2019 (two upstream and two downstream locations) – however these results have not been tested but will form part of the final data gaps assessment report that will include additional surface water monitoring and groundwater monitoring