Taxi Transport Subsidy Scheme

Information booklet for applicants and participants
(including terms and conditions of the scheme)

Taxi Transport Subsidy Scheme

The Taxi Transport Subsidy Scheme, also known as “the TTSS” or “Scheme”, is administered by Transport for NSW.

The Scheme was introduced in 1981 to assist residents of New South Wales who are unable to use public transport because of a qualifying severe and permanent disability.

The Scheme subsidises the travel cost of approved applicants, allowing them to travel by taxi at half fare. From 1 July 2016 the maximum subsidy that can be claimed is $60.00 per trip.

Participation in the NSW Scheme is not means tested however applicants must meet strict eligibility criteria.

Receipt of an aged, invalid, blind or other pension, or membership of a similar scheme in another State or Territory, will not automatically qualify you for participation in the NSW Scheme.

1 As an applicant

Before applying for participation in the Scheme, you should understand or have someone explain to you the Terms and Conditions of the Scheme and how Transport for NSW will handle your personal and health information.

Information on the Privacy of your personal and Health information is set out in Section 2 of this booklet.

The Terms and Conditions are in Section 3.

In assessing your eligibility, we use an independent medical advisor to review your medical condition(s). The recommendation of the medical advisor in conjunction with your overall application will determine whether or not you are accepted into the Scheme.

Our privacy policy is also included on the application form.

If your application is successful you will be required to comply with the Terms and Conditions applicable to the Taxi Transport Subsidy Scheme.

1.1 How the scheme operates

If approved to the Scheme you will receive a book of travel docketts. Taxi drivers will accept a docket from you in payment of 50% of the total fare up to the maximum subsidy limit printed on the docket.

You must pay the remaining balance of the fare, e.g. using cash or a credit facility.

The total fare charged by the taxi driver will be no greater than the fare charged to the general public.

There is no limit to how many trips you may undertake and you can use your docketts for all your taxi travel. You can go where and when you want (originating within NSW) such as travelling to and from work, the shops, social activities and leisure pursuits.

There are also interstate vouchers to use if you are visiting another State or Territory.

Wheelchair accessible taxi (WAT) drivers receive a separate payment for transporting TTSS participants travelling in a wheelchair in a wheelchair accessible taxi. This payment is made by the Government and is not added to your fare.

4 How the subsidy is calculated

1. The subsidy is 50% of the total fare with a maximum subsidy per trip limited to the maximum subsidy amount printed on the docket. From 1 July 2016 the maximum subsidy that can be claimed is $60.00 per trip.

For example:

- If the total fare is $80, you can use a travel docket to pay $40 of the fare and pay the remaining $40 yourself.
 - If the total fare is $140, you can use a travel docket to pay $60 (maximum subsidy) of the fare and pay the remaining $80 yourself.
2. The subsidy is applied to the fare after the application of and shared or multihire fare calculations. Further information on multihire fares is available online, on the link to the fact sheet at the end of this booklet.
 3. Special arrangements are in place for group travel organised by a disability group, school, or other eligible organisation. Contact us if you need to know how the subsidy is calculated in these circumstances.
