

Question	Answer
What is Get NSW Active? (previously known as the Walking & Cycling Program and Get Moving)	Get NSW Active is a program to improve bike riding and walkability in centres, neighbourhoods and at key destinations, and to enable vibrant centres and liveable neighbourhoods through the creation of street environments that prioritise walking and cycling.
How were the projects that received funding identified?	All submitted funding requests were ranked against a Grants Evaluation Panel pre-agreed set of auto scores and criteria. For the 2023/204 program, you can view the new funding guidelines here .
Who is eligible to apply?	The Program welcomes project submissions from local councils. Projects under the Program are categorised into the following streams: Greater Sydney and Regional and Outer Metropolitan Cycling, and Greater Sydney and Regional and Outer Metropolitan Walking.
What should I do if my project was unsuccessful last time around?	To find out more about the reason your project was unsuccessful, you can contact your Transport Local Government Manager.
What happens if I am having trouble logging in or with my application?	If you have log in issues, you can email activetransport@transport.nsw.gov.au to get in touch with someone who can help.
What changes to the portal have been made for the 2023/2024 program?	We've listened to Council feedback and are currently updating the application process and guidelines. There is less emphasis on onerous design and project documentation to be submitted as part of the application. The result is 40 less questions in the portal. Additionally, Transport for NSW has added more help text to questions to drive the right responses and provided more information to describe the type of projects that will score well in assessment. It is hoped that these changes to the guidelines and portal will encourage more applications from smaller and regional councils.
