

Commuter Car Park Program

North Rocks

Transport for NSW | March 2022

Transport for NSW is delivering approximately 135 additional commuter car parking spaces on the corner of Barclay Road and Perry Street to provide the community of North Rocks with more convenient access to public transport and reduce congestion on our roads. The car park is expected to be completed and open to the community by mid-2022.

What is happening?

In March, work will continue for the new commuter car park in North Rocks

Construction activities will include:

- excavation and trenching work
- piling and sewer upgrade work
- construction of retaining walls
- formwork, steel and concrete placement for new stormwater pits
- installation of stormwater pipes
- formwork, steel and concrete placement for new entry layback and driveway.

What is happening?

Equipment used during the work will include vacuum trucks, excavators, rollers, surveying equipment, a concrete pump, concrete saw, concrete trucks, construction vehicles, compaction tools, delivery and removal trucks and hand tools.

Construction work progressing at the North Rocks Commuter Car Park in February

Night work in March

Work previously notified to take place in February has been rescheduled and will now take place on Wednesday 16 March from 7pm to 3am to install new electrical connections.

Work will take place at the intersection of Perry Street and Barclay Road and will involve replacing the existing electrical conduits with new conduits.

If this work needs to be rescheduled due to wet weather, contingency dates have been planned for Thursday 17 March, Monday 21 March, Tuesday 22 March and Wednesday 23 March from 7pm to 3am.

We will notify nearby residents in advance if work needs to be rescheduled.

Our work schedule

We will be on site from Monday to Friday between 7am and 6pm, and between 7am and 3pm on Saturday.

From 1 April 2022, our standard construction hours will revert back to between 7am and 6pm Monday to Friday, and between 8am and 1pm Saturday.

We will not work on Sundays or public holidays.
