Executive summary

The NSW Government’s vision is for an integrated public transport system that drives better outcomes for all people and passengers.

Transport for NSW is tasked with putting people and passengers at the centre of our decision making to boost customer satisfaction across the public transport network of NSW.

The Customer Satisfaction Index May 2023 independently brings together the voices of over 17,800 people, and demonstrates current satisfaction levels across all public transport.

By publishing these results, Transport for NSW is enabling operators and the agency to drive accountability for continual improvement for people and passengers across the transport network.

We will keep talking with people about what matters to them, be accountable for our performance and in turn drive a better public transport system for all passengers.

The below table shows the movement in overall customer satisfaction over time:

Customer satisfaction methodology

Background

Transport for NSW conducts surveys twice a year to measure customer satisfaction levels across the NSW public transport system.

In the last report, we reported on satisfaction from November 2022. In this report, we look at data from our May 2023 survey.

We will continue to survey passengers to help us drive improvements across public transport.

The survey was designed by the Customer Strategy and Technology department in Transport for NSW to ensure that it measured the service attributes that passengers value the most. The division used customer research to determine what drives customer satisfaction levels across the various modes. This information was then used to design the questions in the surveys. The results present what passengers value most, focusing on the top nine customer service priorities including timeliness, safety & security and comfort.

The Customer Satisfaction Index May 2023 includes responses from over 17,800 passengers across five transport modes: train, bus, ferry, light rail and metro.

Scale

The survey uses a seven-point scale in order to differentiate levels of satisfaction as shown below. The top three ratings together are defined as satisfied and the bottom three ratings together are defined as dissatisfied.

Dissatisfied				Satisfied
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Very Dissatisfied	Dissatisfied	Partly Dissatisfied	Neither Satisfied nor Dissatisfied	Partly Satisfied	Satisfied	Very Satisfied

Customer satisfaction methodology

Survey methodology

The surveys applied sampling in two stages to better represent the average passenger's opinions. Firstly, services were randomly selected by surveyors to meet quotas and secondly, passengers on board those services were randomly selected by surveyors. In order to reduce sampling error, maximums were placed on the number of passengers to be sampled within each vehicle, at 40 passengers for train, bus, light rail and metro and 100 passengers for ferry. Sample sizes on board most of the services stayed within these maximums and were exceeded in only a few cases.

The surveys aim to achieve a margin of error of approximately $\pm 5\%$ with a 95% confidence interval at the bus region, ferry route and train or light rail line level of reporting. Regions of high error have been noted and certain regions of geographical or operational similarity may have been aggregated.

Survey interviewers worked seven hour shifts in pairs to distribute and collect surveys. Shift times include:

- Weekday am 6:30 am – 1:30 pm
- Weekday pm 1:30 pm – 8:30 pm
- Weekend 10:00 am – 5:00 pm

While on board, passengers were asked about their experience of their current trip or most recent experience. Where passengers were unable to complete the survey on board, fax and mail back options were provided.

In order to get a result for each overall mode, survey results were weighted for patronage along each line, region or route. The results are then presented for the overall network and the individual operating corridors.

Eligibility

Passengers were selected to participate in the survey for train, bus, ferry, light rail and metro while travelling on a typical day of a typical week. A typical day includes weekdays and weekends, but does not include school holidays, public holidays or special events. Passengers include all users of the NSW train, bus, ferry, metro and light rail network, including local residents, interstate Passengers and overseas visitors.

Passengers under 17 years old were excluded from the survey and surveys were not distributed to school children in uniform.

Customer satisfaction methodology

Background

Transport for NSW has conducted surveys each year to measure customer satisfaction levels across NSW roads since November 2015. We will continue to survey passengers and users each year to help us drive improvement.

The survey was designed by the Customer Strategy and Technology department in Transport for NSW to ensure that it measured the service attributes that customers value the most. The division used customer research to determine what drives customer satisfaction levels across the various modes. This information was then used to design the questions in the surveys. The results present what transport users value most, focusing on the top customer service priorities including journey time reliability, safety, road quality and design.

The Roads Customer Satisfaction Index (RCSI) May 2023 includes responses from almost 7,800 users across five modes: private vehicle, heavy vehicle, motorcycle, bicycle and walking.

Scale

The survey uses a seven-point scale in order to differentiate levels of satisfaction as shown below. The top three ratings together are defined as satisfied and the bottom three ratings together are defined as dissatisfied.

Dissatisfied				Satisfied
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Very Dissatisfied	Dissatisfied	Partly Dissatisfied	Neither Satisfied nor Dissatisfied	Partly Satisfied	Satisfied	Very Satisfied

Survey methodology

The survey is a stratified simple random sample according to a sampling frame. Individual sampling frames have been constructed for each of the individual surveys underpinning the RCSI (passenger vehicle, heavy vehicle, motorcycle, bicycle, walking) to achieve a sample that is statistically representative of the population of the users of the service and is achievable during the in-field period based on known incidence rates in previous surveys.

Sampling and sample sizes set for each of the RCSI modes aims to achieve a Margin of Error (MoE) of less than +/-5% with 95% confidence interval for each service overall and a MoE of less than +/-10% with 95% confidence interval for each of the quota variables. Post weighting may then be used to re-align distributions to be representative of the population.

Transport users were surveyed regarding their most recent experience by means of an online questionnaire with additional face-to-face interviews where required. Transport users were recruited via an online panel and emailed invitations to participate in the survey. Response rates were monitored on a daily basis and were used to determine number of reminders sent to panel members. Survey data is weighted based on ABS and Household Travel Survey (HTS) statistics.

Customer satisfaction methodology

Eligibility

Individuals over 18 years of age were eligible to complete the survey if they had recently travelled using private vehicle (within last 24 hours), heavy vehicle (within last 6 months), motorcycle (within last week), bicycle (within last 6 months) or by walking (within last 24 hours) and their home postcode was within NSW.
