4 Competency rating scale

A five point rating scale is used for the assessment of behavioural competencies.

1	2	3	4	5

Significantly lower than required benchmark Not likely to be a strength	Lower than Benchmark Less likely to be a strength	Meets Benchmark Likely to be a strength	Exceeds Benchmark to be a strength Quite likely to be a strength	Significantly exceeds benchmark to be a strength Very likely to be a strength

5 Assessment methodology

Assessment in this competency is undertaken using one, or a combination of the following methods:

- Candidate completion of Occupational Personality Questionnaire (Occupational Behavioural Survey Questions). This questionnaire is used throughout the world and has been designed to identify an individual's most likely patterns of behaviour (see the use of Occupational Behavioural Survey Questions in behavioural assessment background document).
- Behavioural Interview conducted with candidates supervisor
- Behavioural interview conducted with candidate

6 Behavioural assessment process

6.1 Process stages

The following definitions apply in this document:

- Candidate completes the online Occupational Behavioural Survey Questions.
- Normative data is analysed and indicative benchmarks recorded.
- Indicators that are not consistent with profile benchmarks are explored further with the candidates' current or recent supervisor and data is evaluated accordingly.
- Where inconsistencies still exist, behavioural interview is conducted with the candidate and results evaluated.
- Behavioural competencies are rated and assessment process finalised.
- If the candidate does not meet the profile benchmarks, a development plan is put in place and the candidate is re-assessed quarterly using supervisor report mechanism.
- If the candidate meets the profile benchmarks a Behavioural Competency Assessment report is produced and included in portfolio of evidence.
